

COME ON BOYS

We're headed across the Rhine

by Lawrence Grey

N.P. BRYAN
Music Publishers
CHANDLER BLDG.
220-W. 42ND ST.
NEW YORK

COME ON BOYS WE'RE HEADED ACROSS THE RHINE.

By LAWRENCE GREY

March time.

Voice

When sing-ing Bill from Clov-er hill set out to join the war— Says he I'll get 'em by the score—
They put him in a suit of Kaki oh boy! he did look fine— He won his ser-gent stripes in time—

mf

— Says he I'll be a ser-gent of the line mov-ing toward the Rhine—
— He went a-cross the sea to take his chance in the great ad-vance—ad lib.

— No Fritz-es of his Nibs the Kais-er shall ev-er make my brave boys sway— As — They sent him to the front line trench-es to bat-tle at the break of day— And in the loud-est bat-tle din, they'll hear me sing as I lead them on their way.

in the loud-est bat-tle din, they heard him sing as he led his squad a-way.

This may be had for Phonographs and Player Pianos.

Copyright MCMXVIII by N.P. Bryan.
Copyright Canada MCMXVIII by N.P. Bryan.
International Copyright Secured.

Full Orchestration
Full Band Arrangement
Mailed anywhere .25¢

Refrain.

3

Come on boys we're head-ed a-cross the Rhine Charge boys hard boys break thro' ev - 'ry

mf-ff

line, — We'll give 'em all we've got — and send 'em where its hot — We'll nev - er stack our cresc.

cresc.

guns un-till we down the Huns — Come on boys we're head-ed a-cross the Rhine

Charge boys hard boys, breakthro ev - 'ry line, — We'll keep on driv - ing in 'til we're march-ing thro Ber - lin — Come on boys we're head-ed a-cross the Rhine. Rhine.

ff

TRY THIS OVER ON YOUR PIANO

The Spirit Of The U.S.A.

(L'Esprit des Etats-Unis)

Trans-Lated by Louis La Plante

Emil Edmund Paris,
America set by Chris Koller

In March time

Spiritual
 1. Par - tis pour la ba-taille de Jor-ge la li-ber-té Par-tis-sons en sa-voir nos suf-fra-nes, aban-der Yes
 2. Why on our way to face the day for free-dom We have be-hind our breas-ters all our love Our
Our boys are on their way to fight for free-dom The hard to get there go with-out it Yes Yes
1. Par-tis-sons marcher pour la li-ber-té Par-tis-sons marcher pour la li-ber-té Yes

Yes - is your flag over us now, our boys Par-tis-sons en sa-voir nos suf-fra-nes Yes Friends, our homes and her - ring hearts to Yes, we're here and full of cheer Our they a time shall not have all the There's work to do right here Yes and must you make your way to Yes, it's our time to live Yes

par-tis-sons marcher pour la li-ber-té Par-tis-sons marcher pour la li-ber-té Yes
folk are gone this love to give our free-dom We will guard it while red blood oozes on Yes for there will be work to do on free-dom Yes, we'll keep it while red blood oozes on Yes
our soul are - and, it's our time to live Yes, we'll keep it while red blood oozes on Yes

Copyright © 1918 by N.P. Bryan
 Published by N.P. Bryan
 220 W. 42nd St.

MAY BE HAD FOR PHONOGRAPHS AND PLAYER PIANOS

Copies mailed anywhere by Publisher for 15c, in Stamps

